

The following are examples of prevention-related trainings NYSCASA has offered in the recent past:

Primary Prevention Overview for NYSCASA staff, October 2012

Countering Harmful Messages with Youth to Prevent Sexual Violence for Prevent Child Abuse New York annual Conference, April 2013

Promising Prevention Practices in New York State: Mapping our Impact and Looking Ahead for Department of Health annual meeting/NYSCASA conference, June 2013

Bystander Intervention: A Strategy for the Primary Prevention of Sexual Violence for Madison County Domestic and Sexual Violence Coalition Meeting, April 2014

Brief Prevention Overview for Sexual Assault and Crime Victims Assistance Program at Samaritan Hospital, December 2015

To receive power points of these presentations, or for additional information on prevention trainings, please contact Elizabeth Isabelle, Director of Training, at eisabelle@nyscasa.org